

EXHIBIT A

[Bylaws to be Attached]

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA            )
COUNTY OF GREENVILLE            )

BYLAWS OF BELLA GROVE HOMEOWNERS' ASSOCIATION, INC.

ARTICLE ONE DEFINITIONS

Unless such terms are differently defined herein, the definitions set forth in Article I of that certain Declaration of Covenants, Conditions, Easements and Restrictions for Bella Grove at Hollingsworth Park, executed February 7, 2017, and recorded March 27, 2017, in Deed Book 2509 at Page 1067 in the Office of the Register of Deeds for Greenville County, South Carolina, and any amendments thereto (as heretofore amended, modified or restated, the "Declaration") shall be and hereby are adopted as a part of these Bylaws the same as if restated herein. Further, any capitalized terms appearing but not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Declaration.

ARTICLE TWO NAME AND PURPOSE

Section 1. Name. These Bylaws govern that certain corporation known as "Bella Grove Homeowners' Association, Inc." (hereinafter referred to as the "Association"). The Association was formed on February 14, 2017 upon the filing of Articles of Incorporation with the South Carolina Secretary of State. The Association shall be governed by the South Carolina Nonprofit Corporation Act, as codified in S.C. Code Ann. § 33-31-10 et seq., and as thereafter amended (the "Act").

Section 2. Principal Office. The principal office of the Association is 340 Rocky Slope Road, Suite 300, Greenville, South Carolina 29607, or such other location to be determined by the Board of Directors from time to time, which office shall be published with the Secretary of State in accordance with the Act.

Section 3. Registered Agent. The registered agent of the Association shall be determined by the Board of Directors from time to time, which shall be published with the Secretary of State in accordance with the Act.

Section 4. Purpose. In addition to such purposes as set forth in its initial Articles of Incorporation or any amendment thereto or subsequent correction or additional filing, and the Declaration, as may be amended from time to time, the purposes and objectives of the Association are as follows:

- (a) To manage, operate, repair and maintain the property owned by the Association, including, but not limited to, the Common Areas within the Property as more particularly described in Article V of the Declaration;
- (b) To provide for the administration of the Property according to the terms of the Declaration;
- (c) To establish an orderly and efficient system of billing to pay for Association expenses, including but not limited to, taxes, reserve deposits and insurance premiums and any other cost or expense for which the Association is responsible;
- (d) To aid and cooperate with all Owners or Members in the enforcement of the Declaration as it may hereafter be amended by the Association; and
- (e) To employ engineers, accountants, attorneys or other professionals to represent or provide services to the Association when necessary.

All of said purposes to be without financial profit to any director or Member of the Association.

ARTICLE THREE GENERAL POWERS

This Association shall have the power to own and manage real and personal property, and to obtain, invest and retain funds, in advancing the purposes stated in Article Two above. In addition, the Association shall have the power to do any lawful acts, or things reasonably necessary or desirable for carrying out the Association's purposes, and for protecting the lawful rights and interests of its Members in connection therewith.

ARTICLE FOUR DURATION

The duration of this corporation shall be in perpetuity unless sooner terminated according to the terms of these Bylaws or the Declaration.

ARTICLE FIVE
MEMBERSHIP AND MEMBERSHIP RIGHTS

Section 1. Qualifications. Each and every Person who is a record Owner of a fee or undivided fee interest of any Lot within the Property shall be a "Member" of the Association, excluding Persons who hold such interest solely under a mortgage or other lien instrument or as security for the performance of an obligation. Membership in the Association shall be confined to such Owners and shall be appurtenant to and inseparable from such ownership of a Lot within the Property. Ownership of such Lot shall be the sole qualification for membership. No Owner shall be required to pay any independent consideration for his membership. Where two or more Owners hold title to one Lot, all such Owners shall be Members of the Association, but Member voting shall be controlled strictly in accordance with these Bylaws and the Declaration. Whenever a Member shall cease to be an Owner, such Member and all delegates therefrom shall be dropped from the membership rolls of the Association.

Section 2. Members. No Member shall have any vested right, interest, or privilege of or to the assets, functions, affairs, or franchises of the Association, or any right, interest, or privilege which may be independently transferable, (except as to the delegation of privileges provided herein), or inheritable, or which shall continue after such membership ceases.

Section 3. Voting Rights and Proxy. As set forth in Article Three of the Declaration, the voting rights of the membership shall be appurtenant to the ownership of a Lot, each Owner of a Lot being entitled to one (1) vote for each Lot owned, regardless of the number of lots used in connection with his residence, except the Declarant, which shall be entitled to three (3) votes for each Lot owned by it. After the expiration of twenty (20) years from the date of the Declaration, Declarant shall only be entitled to one (1) vote for each Lot still owned by it. Voting by Members of the Association may be in person, by written ballot or by proxy as set forth herein. The Members shall have such voting rights and privileges as set forth in Article Three of the Declaration. When two or more Owners share title to any Lot, all shall be Members; however, the voting rights allocated for such Lot shall be exercised as the said Owners among themselves determine and in no event shall such co-Owners have voting rights that exceed those allocated to their Lot in accordance with the Declaration.

Section 4. Suspension of Rights. During any period in which an Owner or Owners of a Lot shall be more than sixty (60) days delinquent in the payment of any regular or special assessment levied by the Association, the voting rights of such Owner or Owners, or the voting rights of the Member designated by such Owner or Owners, may be suspended by the Board of Directors and such Owner shall not be eligible to be elected to the Board of Directors until such time as the assessment has been paid. In addition, the Board of Directors may discontinue such other services or conveniences as are provided through and/or contracted for by the Association for the benefit of such Owner or Owners.

Section 5. Powers and Duties of Members. Powers and duties of Members shall be those powers and duties specifically and exclusively required by the Act, the Declaration and these Bylaws to be exercised and be performed by the Association, which powers and duties shall be exercised and performed upon a majority of the total vote of the Members, except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Declaration or these Bylaws. Such powers and duties shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

- (a) Election of directors, as provided in these Bylaws;
- (b) Removal of any director in the event the Declarant's right to appoint a director has been assigned, delegated, or relinquished in writing by Declarant, then upon vote of seventy-five (75%) percent of the total vote of the Association, and election of a replacement thereof upon vote of a majority of said total vote;
- (c) Proposal and approval of amendments to the Declaration, as provided in the Declaration; and
- (d) Approval of amendments to the Bylaws, as provided in these Bylaws.

ARTICLE SIX
MEETING OF MEMBERS

Section 1. Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of the Members for the purpose of hearing reports from all officers and standing committees, for electing Directors and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting shall be held in the County of Greenville, State of South Carolina on the last Thursday of January of each year if not a legal holiday (and, if a legal holiday, then on the next succeeding business day at a place and time to be fixed by the Board of Directors).

Section 2. Special Meetings. A special meeting of the Members shall be held whenever called by the President, by the Board of Directors, or upon written request of Members entitled to exercise 25% of the total Association vote.

Section 3. Notice of Meetings. Written notice stating the time, place, and in general terms the purpose or purposes of any meeting of Members shall be sent by the Secretary or the person requesting the meeting by (i) physically mailing the notice, postage prepaid, to the last known address of each Member or (ii) emailing to the last known email address of each Member; regardless of delivery method, said written notice shall be sent at least fifteen (15) days before the date of such meeting. Such notice shall be provided to the Declarant as set forth in Article Three, Section 7 of the Declaration. It shall be the responsibility of each Member to advise the Secretary in writing as to the address to which notice should be sent and to timely advise the Secretary of any change of address. Any Member who provides an email address to the Secretary thereby consents to the Secretary's use of that email address as a sole means of communication, and agrees to check the email account daily. Proof of email sent to the most recent email address on record shall be conclusive evidence that notice was received and, in that event, the Member waives the right to object on the grounds that no actual notice was received.

Section 4. Quorum. The presence, in person or by proxy, of Members holding ten percent (10%) of the votes that may be cast at any meeting shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Members, except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws. In the absence of a quorum, the Members present may convene in the name of the Association for the purpose of adjournment only.

Section 5. Proxies. At any meeting of the Members, a Member entitled to vote may do so by written proxy signed by the Member and in accordance with Article III, Section 5 of the Declaration. In order to be valid, the original written proxy or an electronic or faxed copy of such proxy must be presented to the Secretary of the Association prior to any vote of the Association in which the proxy is exercised. No proxy shall be valid after three (3) months from the date of its execution. Every proxy shall be revocable and shall automatically cease upon conveyance by the Member of his Lot.

Section 6. Voting by Mail. Member voting for the election of directors or for such other business or action requiring a vote of the Members may be conducted by mailed or emailed written ballot in accordance with the Act.

Section 7. Action by Written Consent. The Members shall have the right to take any action in the absence of a meeting which they could take at a meeting by obtaining the written approval of all Members, or the requisite proportion thereof set forth in the Declaration. Any action so approved shall have the same effect as though taken at a meeting of the Members.

ARTICLE SEVEN BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Election of Directors. The business and affairs of the Association shall be managed by a Board of Directors consisting of at least five (5) and not more than seven (7) directors appointed by Declarant. The right to appoint a director may be assigned, delegated, or relinquished in writing at any time by the Declarant. If the right to appoint a director is relinquished, directors shall be elected by a majority vote of the Members of the Association at the annual meeting in accordance with the terms hereinafter.

Section 2. General Powers. The affairs of the Association shall be managed by the Board of Directors. No director shall incur any liability whatsoever to any Member, Owner, or occupant of any Lot for any actions taken by the director in good faith and within the scope of his or her authority in implementing or enforcing any provision of this Declaration.

Section 3. Number and Tenure. The initial number of Directors shall be five (5). Except as may be appointed by the Declarant, each Director shall be an Owner (or a principal or employee thereof in the case of corporate or entity Owners). Each Director shall hold office for three (3) years or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified except as follows for staggered terms of the initial Board of Directors. There shall be the following staggered terms for the initial Board of Directors: one Director shall serve a one (1) year term, two Directors shall serve two (2) year terms, and two Directors shall serve three (3) year terms; all terms thereafter shall be for three (3) years. The number of Directors may be changed by amendment of these Bylaws.

Section 4. Nomination. Nomination for election to the Board of Directors shall be solicited from the Membership by the Secretary and published in the notice of Annual Meeting or notice of forthcoming vote by alternative means. Directors may be, but shall not be required to be, Members of the Association.

Section 5. Election. Election to the Board of Directors shall be by confidential ballot. At such election, the Members or their proxies may cast, in respect to each vacancy, as many votes as they are entitled to exercise under the provisions herein. The persons receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected. Cumulative voting is not permitted.

Section 6. Removal. Any Director may be removed from the Board, with or without cause, by a majority vote of the Members of the Association. In the event of death, resignation, or removal of a Director, his successor shall be selected by the remaining members of the Board and shall serve for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

Section 7. Compensation. No Director shall receive compensation for any service he may render to the Association. However, any Director may be reimbursed for his actual expenses incurred in the performance of his duties. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any Director from serving the Association in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 8. Regular Meetings. The Board of Directors shall meet regularly once each quarter, at a time and place it shall select.

Section 9. Special Meetings. A special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called by or at the request of the President or any three (3) Directors. Unless Director participation in a special meeting by teleconference is considered ineffective in light of agenda items or otherwise and therefore barred by a majority vote of the Board of Directors, it shall be an acceptable manner of meeting participation.

Section 10. Notices. Notice of any special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given at least three (3) days in advance, in writing delivered personally or sent by certified mail to each Director. No notice need be given to any Director who actually attends the meeting (in person or by teleconference) or to any Director who, in writing (before or after the meeting), waives such notice. Notice of any regular or special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be provided to the Declarant in accordance with Article Three, Section 7 of the Declaration.

Section 11. Quorum. A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board, and if less than a majority of the Directors are present at said meeting, said Directors present shall only have authority to adjourn the meeting, and upon regular notice, the meeting may be reconvened. Unless Director participation in any meeting by teleconference is considered ineffective in light of agenda items or otherwise and therefore barred by a majority vote of the Board of Directors, it shall be an acceptable manner of meeting participation, and such participation shall count towards establishing a quorum.

Section 12. Manner of Acting. The act of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors.

Section 13. Action Taken Without a Meeting. The Directors shall have the right to take any action in the absence of a meeting which they could take at a meeting by obtaining the written approval of all the Directors. Any action so approved shall have the same effect as though taken at a meeting of the directors.

Section 14. Powers. The Board of Directors shall have power to:

- (a) Adopt and publish rules and regulations governing the use of property owned by the Association, and the personal conduct of the Members and their guests thereon, and to establish penalties for the infraction thereof;
- (b) Suspend voting rights of a Member during any period in which such Member shall be in default in the payment of any assessment levied by the Association. Such rights may also be suspended for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days for infraction of the Declaration;
- (c) Exercise for the Association all powers, duties, and authority vested in or delegated to the Association and not reserved to the Members by other provisions of the Declaration and these Bylaws; and
- (d) Employ a manager, an independent contractor, or such other employees as they deem necessary, and to prescribe their duties.

Section 15. Duties. It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to:

- (a) Cause to be kept a complete record of all its acts and corporate affairs and to present a statement thereof to the Members at the annual meeting of the Members, or at any special meeting when such statement is requested in writing by Members holding twenty-five percent (25%) of the total Association vote;
- (b) Supervise all Officers, agents, and employees of this Association, and to see that their duties are properly performed;
- (c) Establish the annual assessment period and fix the amount of the annual assessment against each Member for each Lot owned at least thirty (30) days in advance of each annual assessment;
- (d) Send written notice of each assessment to every Owner at least thirty (30) days in advance of each annual assessment period, and levy all such assessments as liens;
- (e) Foreclose the lien against any property for which assessments are not paid within thirty (30) days after due date or to bring an action at law against the owner personally obligated to pay the same, or take such other action of enforcement allowed in the Declaration;

- (f) Issue, or to cause an appropriate officer to issue, upon demand by any person, a certificate setting forth whether or not any assessment has been paid. A reasonable charge may be made by the Board for the issuance of these certificates. If a certificate states an assessment has been paid, such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of such payment;
- (g) Procure and maintain liability and fire or other hazard insurance on any property owned by the Association or so stipulated to be insured in accordance with the Declaration; and
- (h) Cause all officers or employees having fiscal responsibilities to be bonded, as it may deem appropriate.

ARTICLE EIGHT OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers. The officers of the corporation shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other officers as the Board may from time to time create by resolution.

Section 2. Qualification and Method of Election. Initially, the officers shall be appointed by the Declarant. Thereafter, the officers shall be chosen according to a majority vote of the Board of Directors at the first meeting of the Board of Directors following each annual meeting of the Members. The officers need not be Owners or Members of the Association. Each officer shall serve for a term of one (1) year, unless he shall sooner resign, be removed, or otherwise be disqualified to serve.

Section 3. Special Appointments. The Board may elect such other officers as the affairs of the Association may acquire, each of whom shall hold office for such period, have such authority, and perform such duties as the Board may, from time to time, determine.

Section 4. Resignation and Removal. Any officer may be removed from his position with or without cause by the Board. Any officer may resign at any time giving written notice to the Board, the President, or the Secretary. Such resignation shall take effect on the date of receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5. Multiple Offices. The offices of Secretary and Treasurer may be held by the same person. No person shall simultaneously hold more than one of any of the other offices except in the case of special offices created pursuant to Section 3 of this Article.

Section 6. President. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors at which he is present, shall see that orders and resolutions of the Board are carried out; shall sign all contracts, deeds and other written instruments and shall co-sign all Association checks and promissory notes.

Section 7. Vice-President. The Vice-President shall perform all such duties as the President or the Board of Directors shall request.

Section 8. Secretary. The Secretary shall record the votes and keep the minutes of all the meetings of the Association and of the Board of Directors. Such recordings and minutes shall be an accurate and official record of all business transacted. The Secretary shall provide the minutes to the Declarant in accordance with Article Three, Section 7 of the Declaration. The Secretary shall be custodian of all the Association's records. The Secretary shall serve notice of meetings of the Board and of the Members; maintain a membership roll with the current names and addresses of all Members; and shall perform such other duties as required by the Board. Consistent with the Declaration, the Secretary shall hold a Power of Attorney for the Association to aid in the enforcement of liens for dues and assessments.

Section 9. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall receive all the Association's funds and deposit them in a bank account approved by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse such funds as directed by a resolution of the Board of Directors; provided, however, that a resolution of the Board of Directors shall not be necessary for disbursements made in the ordinary course of business conducted within the limits of a budget adopted by the said Board. The Treasurer shall sign all checks and promissory notes of the Association; keep proper books of account; cause an annual audit of the Association books to be made by a public accountant at the completion of each fiscal year; and shall prepare an annual budget and a statement of income and expenditures to be presented to the Members at the regular annual meeting, and deliver a copy to each Member.

Section 10. Vacancies. A vacancy in any such office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or otherwise, may be filled by any member of the Board of Directors and shall be chosen and appointed according to a majority vote of the Board of Directors. The replacement officer shall serve for the unexpired portion of the vacated term.

Section 11. Compensation. Officers of the corporation shall be compensated, if at all, as established by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE NINE RECORDS AND REPORTS

Section 1. Corporate Records. The Association shall keep the following corporate records in either a written form or in another form capable of conversion into written form within a reasonable time:

- (a) Minutes of all meetings of the Members and Board of Directors, a record of all actions taken by the Members or Directors without a meeting, and a record of all actions taken by Committees of the Board of Directors. These shall be maintained as permanent records.
- (b) Appropriate accounting records.
- (c) A record of Members in a form that permits preparation of a list of the name and address of all members, in alphabetical order by class, showing the number of votes each member is entitled to cast.
- (d) Copies of the following:
  - (i) The Articles or any restated articles of incorporation and all amendments to them currently in effect;
  - (ii) These Bylaws or restated bylaws and all amendments to them currently in effect;
  - (iii) Resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors relating to the characteristics, qualifications, rights, limitations, and obligations of members or any class or category of members;
  - (iv) Minutes of all meetings of Members and records of all actions approved by the Members for the past three years;
  - (v) All written communications to Members generally within the past three (3) years, including the financial statements furnished for the past three (3) years pursuant to Section 33-31-1620 of the Act;

(vi) A list of the names and business or home addresses of its current Directors and Officers; and

(vii) The most recent report of each type required to be filed by the Association with the Secretary of State pursuant to the Act.

Section 2. Inspection of Records by Members.

- (a) A Member is entitled to inspect and copy, at a reasonable time and location specified by the Association, any of the records of the Association described in Section 1(d) above if the Member gives the Association written notice or a written demand at least five (5) business days prior to the date on which the Member wishes to inspect and copy.
- (b) A Member is entitled to inspect and copy, at a reasonable time and reasonable location specified by the Association, any of the following records of the Association if the Member meets the requirements of Subsection (c) and gives the Association written notice at least five (5) business days prior to the date on which the Member wishes to inspect and copy:
  - (i) Excerpts from any records required to be maintained under Section 33-31-1601(a) of the Act, to the extent not subject to inspection under Section 33-31-1602(a);
  - (ii) Accounting records of the Association; and
  - (iii) Subject to Subsection (f) below, the Membership list.
- (c) A Member may inspect and copy the records identified in Subsection (b) only if:
  - (i) The Member's demand is made in good faith and for a proper purpose;
  - (ii) The Member describes with reasonable particularity the purpose and the records the member desires to inspect; and
  - (iii) The records are directly connected with this purpose.
- (d) This Section 2 does not affect:
  - (i) The right of a member to inspect records under Section 33-31-720 of the Act or, if the member is in litigation with the Association, to the same extent as any other litigant; or
  - (ii) The power of a court to compel the production of corporate records for examination.
- (e) Cost. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Association may impose a reasonable charge, covering the costs of labor and material, for copies of any documents provided to the member. The charge may not exceed the estimated cost of production or reproduction of the records.
- (f) Limitations. Without consent of the Board, a membership list or any part of a membership list may not be obtained or used by a person for any purpose unrelated to a Member's interest as a Member. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, without the consent of the Board a membership list or any part of the list may not be:

- (i) Used to solicit money or property unless the money or property will be used solely to solicit the votes of the Members in an election to be held by the Association;
- (ii) Used for any commercial purpose; or
- (iii) Sold to or purchased by any person.

ARTICLE TEN COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors shall appoint such committees as deemed appropriate in carrying out its purpose.

ARTICLE ELEVEN
NOTICE

Section 1. Notice. Whenever, according to these Bylaws, a notice shall be required to be given to any party, such notice shall be given in writing by depositing same in a United States Post Office in a postage paid sealed envelope, addressed to such party at his address as the same appears on the books of the Association, and unless provisions hereof otherwise provide, the time when such notice is mailed shall be deemed the time of the giving of such notice. Additionally, electronic means of notice allowed by the Act shall be acceptable.

Section 2. Waiver of Notice. Any notice required to be given by these Bylaws may be waived by the person entitled thereto.

ARTICLE TWELVE
CONTRACTS AND OWNERSHIP OF PROPERTY

Section 1. Contracts. The Board of Directors may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of the Association, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

Section 2. Ownership of Real Estate. All instruments in writing affecting any real estate which may be owned by the Association shall be executed and acknowledged in the name of the Association by the President and attested by the Secretary.

ARTICLE THIRTEEN
FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the corporation shall begin on January 1 and terminate on December 31 of each year.

ARTICLE FOURTEEN
AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Procedure. These Bylaws may be amended, at a regular or special meeting of the Members, by a vote of a majority of a quorum of Members present in person or by proxy.

Section 2. Conflict. In the event of any conflict between the Declaration and these Bylaws, the Declaration shall control.

ARTICLE FIFTEEN
ENFORCEMENT

Enforcement of these Bylaws shall be by proceeding at law or in equity against any Person violating or attempting to violate any requirement, either to restrain the violation or to recover damages. Failure by the Association or by any Owner or Member to enforce any requirement herein contained shall in no event be deemed a waiver of the right to do so thereafter.

ARTICLE SIXTEEN
SEVERABILITY

These Bylaws shall regulate and manage the affairs of the Association in a manner that is not inconsistent with the Act or the Articles of Incorporation; if any provision herein is determined to be unenforceable under applicable law as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, the same shall be valid and enforceable to the maximum extent that would not cause such provision to be unenforceable under applicable law, and said provision shall be deemed to have been automatically modified accordingly at all relevant time and without any further action required. Modification or invalidation of any one of these Bylaws or requirements by judgment or court order shall in no way affect any other provisions, which other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

ARTICLE SEVENTEEN
CAPTIONS

The captions of each Article and Section hereof are inserted only for convenience and are in no way to be construed as defining, limiting, extending, or otherwise modifying or adding to the particular sections to which they refer.

ARTICLE EIGHTEEN
MISCELLANEOUS

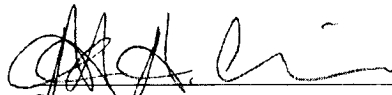

All meetings specified to be conducted herein shall be conducted in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order, or the current version thereof; provided, however, the Board shall have the discretion to waive or relax said rules in whole or in part at any of such meetings.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, none of the net earnings of the Association shall be permitted to inure to the benefit of any private Member or individual other than by the acquisition, construction, or provision of management, maintenance, and care of the Association's assets.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, the undersigned President of the Association has hereunto subscribed his name as evidence of adoption of the foregoing Bylaws on behalf of the Association this 29th day of November, 2018.
