AND EASEMENTS FOR WATERSTONE COTTAGES

Deed Book 2433 at Page 582--615; Deed Book 2434 at Page 5549; Deed Book 2453 at Pages 325--326; Deed Book 2458 at Page 1953; and Deed Book 2505 at Pages 2931--2932

Whereas, Waterstone Cottages currently exist with Covenants, Restrictions, and Easements recorded in Deed Book 2433 at Pages 582--615, and Amendments recorded in Deed Book 2434 at Page 5549, Deed Book 2453 at Pages 325--326, Deed Book 2458 at Page 1953, and Deed Book 2505 at Page 2931--2932;

Whereas, pursuant to the provisions of the original covenants the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions, Restrictions and Easements of Waterstone Cottages, Article XI, may be amended by the existing homeowners;

Now Therefore, at the annual meeting of the homeowners of Waterstone Cottages held on November 4, 2017 at the Boiling Springs Fire Station, located on Blacks Drive in Greenville, S.C. with the homeowners in attendance or having submitted proxies, upon Seventy-five percent (75%) of the votes of the homeowners voting in favor, this Amendment to the DECLARATION OF COVENANTS, CONDITIONS, RESTRICTIONS, AND EASEMENTS (the "Declaration") was approved:

17. Decorative Yard Ornamentation. No decorative statues, birdbaths, fountains, ornaments, figurines, or any other decorative structures or items are permitted in the front or side yards of any Lot or upon any wall unless approved by the H.O.A., however, they are allowed in back yards but cannot interfere with Ground Maintenance (i.e., need to be in mulched areas).
